Nottingham Trent University Student Comms
NTU Advent Calendar 2017:

1. The competition is open to all current fully enrolled students of Nottingham Trent University.
2. The competition will run each weekday (Monday to Friday), starting Monday 4 December 2017 and finishing on Friday 15 December 2017.
3. One question will be asked each day. Entrants must tweet their answer to @NTUStudentNews with #NTU by 23:59 on the same day.
4. Entrants must also be following @NTUStudentNews on Twitter.
5. Any answers received after this time or submitted via routes other than a tweet to @NTUStudentNews will not be entered into the draw.
6. There is a limit of one submission per entrant, per question. Only the first answer from an entrant will be considered for that day's round of the competition.
7. There is no limit on the number of daily questions an entrant can answer.
8. The winning entry will be selected at random by the University's Student Communications department.
9. By entering the competition you agree to the University using your answer and Twitter handle on any web pages, Twitter accounts or Facebook accounts connected to the University, at the University's sole discretion.
10. The winner for each day will be contacted via Twitter the next day, with their name being drawn and the prize they have won. No alternative prize will be offered.
11. The University reserves the right to postpone or to cancel the competition for any reason.
12. Prizes must be collected from Dryden Centre reception, City Campus before Friday 12 January 2017.
