LLB Law (Distance Learning) Scholarship Scheme 2016

Nottingham Law School will be offering a number of competitive scholarships up to the value of £1,000 for students who have been made an offer to study on the LLB Law (Distance Learning) course which starts in September 2016.

These prestigious scholarships are available to UK, EU and International students.

Please complete all sections of the scholarship application form and send the required documents before the deadline.

Nature of the scholarship

These scholarships will be awarded to those candidates who most closely meet the criteria for the award which are provided below.

The scholarship decision will be made by an awarding committee and all decisions of that awarding committee are final.

The scholarship will be available in the form of a tuition fee reduction, and if you are awarded a scholarship your fee will be adjusted before enrolment.

Application Process

Applications must consist of a fully completed scholarship application form, which includes a statement of a maximum of 750 words that directly addresses both criteria set out below.

The awarding committee reserve the right to exclude from consideration any applications that include written statements which exceed the stated word limit or are incomplete.

Please return your completed scholarship application form and supporting documents to nls.enquiries@ntu.ac.uk as soon as possible.

Scholarship application deadlines:

- 4 pm GMT on 27 April 2016

Scholarship applications received before 4 pm GMT on 27 April will be assessed and successful applicants will be notified of their scholarship award by 18 May 2016.

Applications received after this date will not be considered.

LLB (Hons) Law (Distance Learning) scholarship

Terms and conditions

1. Applicants are only eligible for consideration of a scholarship award if they have been offered a place on the LLB (Hons) Law (Distance Learning) degree. Please note: NTIC progression students are not eligible to apply for a scholarship. Please check our website for details of funding for NTIC students at: www.ntu.ac.uk/ntic.
2. Students who are sponsored by their employers, government, or funding body (in full or in part) are not eligible to apply for this scholarship award.
3. Applicants are only eligible to apply for a scholarship if they are due to enrol onto the first year of their course in September 2016. Students due to enrol onto the second or third year of their part-time or distance learning course in September 2016 are not eligible to apply.
4. The scholarship deadline is 4pm GMT on 27 April 2016. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.
5. Applicants will be informed of whether they have (or have not) been awarded a scholarship (and of the value of the scholarship award if they have been awarded) within three weeks of the application deadline dates.
6. Scholarships of up to a maximum of £1,000 are available. The awarding committee may choose to award a part scholarship.
7. The scholarship will be available in the form of a tuition fee reduction. The fee reduction will be applied to your Year One fees only. If you are awarded a scholarship, your fee will be adjusted before enrolment.
8. If you are awarded any other scholarship, bursary and / or fee reduction from the University, the maximum amount awarded from the LLB Law (Distance Learning) Scholarship Scheme will not exceed more than £1,000.
9. The scholarship is not transferable and will not be awarded if you choose to defer your entry to a different start date, or if you choose to transfer to a different course at the University.
10. The scholarship will only be awarded once an applicant accepts and meets the conditions of their offer and are eligible to enrol on the course.
11. Scholarships are competitive and selection is based on the information provided on the scholarship application form. It is, therefore, of great importance that you give your personal statement careful thought and preparation, and that you refer to the criteria provided.
12. The University's decision in all matters relating to the scholarship is final.
13. If your scholarship application is successful, you may be asked to appear in online and / or printed University marketing materials. This may involve providing a student profile and a photograph which may be used to promote the University's scholarship schemes and LLB (Hons) Law (Distance Learning) course.
