

NTU Course Leader Conference: 17 May 2016

08:30	Registration & hot breakfast rolls Chaucer Level 2: outside CPLD Suite				Posters, displays and surgeries available all day
09:00	Welcome and update on Curriculum Refresh Professor Edward Peck, Vice-Chancellor Student representation Magda Marzec, VP Education, Nottingham Trent Students' Union Conference overview Jane McNeil, Director of Academic Development Chaucer Lecture Theatre 1
10:00	Workshop 1 Transforming a course: focus on periodic course review CHR2702	Workshop 2 International course experiences CHR2503	Workshop 3 Addressing differences in student progression & attainment CHR2604	Presentations 4 Staff-student research collaborations CHR2701	Displays, surgeries Surgeries will run throughout the conference except during plenary sessions. You can book a slot on the day or email the relevant contact to pre-book your slot (see 'Programme' tab on the conference registration website for a list of surgeries and contacts)
11:00	Coffee Break Chaucer Level 2: outside CPLD Suite
11:15	Workshop 5 Course tutorial delivery CHR2503	Workshop 6 Sustainability in the curriculum CHR2604	Workshop 7 New student induction CHR2702	Presentations 8 Staff-student research collaborations: poster session CHR2705
12:15	Lunch Chaucer Level 2: outside CPLD Suite
13:00	Trent Institute for Learning & Teaching (TILT) Professor Eunice Simmons, Senior Pro Vice Chancellor Keynote—leading teams to introduce meaningful change Professor Susan Rigby, Deputy Vice-Chancellor, University of Lincoln Chaucer Lecture Theatre 1
14:00-15:30	World cafe discussions (Tea and cake served outside CHR2702)				Posters, displays and surgeries available all day CPLD suite, CHR2703, CHR2704, CHR2706
	World Cafe 1: Refreshing your course—capturing ideas from today CHR2604	World Cafe 2: Ideas for improving aspects of NSS scores CHR2702	World Cafe 3: Incorporating staff-student research collaborations into your course CHR2701
15:30	Discussion: Course Leader Networking Share ideas to shape an NTU-wide network for course leaders. CHR2701				