

Trent Institute for Learning and Teaching

NOTTINGHAM
TRENT UNIVERSITY

TILT ALTC 2016

Transforming Learning Through Scholarship

Professor Eunice Simmons

Senior Pro-Vice Chancellor

Nottingham Trent University

ACT1201 TILT

5 July 2016

The Trent Institute for Learning and Teaching (TILT) will act as a catalyst for the development, adoption, investigation and dissemination of innovation in pedagogy by academic and professional colleagues across our campuses.

TILT

The story so far...

Activities, Awards and Funding

- 14 practice and scholarship groups
- Funding
 - Sabbatical scheme
 - New Seedcorn fund
- Awards
 - Vice-Chancellor's Teaching Award
 - New Vice-Chancellor's Outstanding Teacher Awards
- Support for national teaching awards (HEA NTF and CATE)
- Post Graduate Certificate in Academic Practice (PGCAP)

Practice exchange events

- Forthcoming events:

- The Body in Learning and Teaching workshop (co-sponsored by the HEA)
8 July 2016
- Internationalising the Curriculum conference (collaboration with NTU Global)
14 July 2016
- Personalisation workshop
14 September 2016
- BTEC symposium
15 September 2016

ALTC 2016

- The highlight of the first year of TILT
- Colleagues from TILT / NTU and the wider learning community celebrate and showcase their work to enhance practice exchange
- Fantastic opportunity to extend the community of practice around teaching and learning
- Ensure that evidence-based understandings from pedagogic research influence practice at NTU
- Inspire colleagues to invest in their professional development

Programme

- 35 sessions, the most ever at the ALTC
- Facilitated by colleagues across NTU inc.
 - TILT group members
 - Sabbatical holders
- Collaborative sessions with students
- Sessions led by colleagues from the wider learning community
- Keynote by Professor Dilly Fung:
A vision of 'good' education: towards a
Connected Curriculum

Ways to nurture the innovative and inspirational teaching that is at the heart of what we do.

- Join a practice and scholarship group
- Nominate a colleague for an award
- Submit an application for a sabbatical or seedcorn fund
- Be a PGCAP mentor or tutor
- Attend a TILT supported event or better yet propose one

Find out more at: www.ntu.ac.uk/tilt