

The Violence Trends Project

PROJECT CONFERENCE

EXPLAINING AND SUSTAINING THE DECLINE IN STRANGER AND ACQUAINTANCE VIOLENCE

29TH JUNE 2016

9:30 - 15:30

PROGRAMME

- 09.30 Refreshments and Registration
- 10.00 Welcome Address by Nottinghamshire Police Crime Commissioner Paddy Tipping
- 10.10 Keynote by Chief Superintendent Alex Murray
- 10.40 Presentation of research findings: 'What is the role of population group- and context-specific changes in personal security and routine activities in explaining the decline in stranger and acquaintance violence?' by members of the research team
- 11.30 Refreshments Break
- 11.45 Presentation on practitioners' viewpoint: practical implications of the research findings by Professor Ken Pease OBE, Dr John Larsen (Drinkaware) & Tara Deshpande (Home Office)
- 12.30 Lunch Break
- 13.30 Roundtable discussions: What next for violence prevention?
Building on the research discussions in the morning sessions, participants will have the opportunity to develop approaches to violence prevention, based on specific issues raised during the day
- 14.40 Concluding Remarks
- 15.00-15.30 Discussions over Refreshments

@PROJECT_VIO