

APPLICATION FOR THE ISSUE OF PRO-FORMA VERIFICATION OF A CNA A AWARD

GUIDANCE FOR APPLICANTS

The Further and Higher Education Act 1992 abolished the Council for National Academic Awards (CNA A). The Open University is authorised to have care and custody of CNA A records for the purposes of authenticating original award documents or copies of them and providing verification of entries in the records. Requests for the verification of awards can be fulfilled by the provision of:

Pro-forma Verification – where the original award certificate has been lost or destroyed, The Open University (through Open University Validation Partnerships, OUV P) offers a pro-forma verification document styled in a similar format to an award certificate which can be supplied on payment of a fee of £54.00 (inclusive of VAT). Payments must be made to The Open University by cheque or postal order.

Please note that it is not possible for a new award document to be produced in the name of CNA A and that The Open University is specifically prohibited from issuing or amending CNA A certificates, whether duplicate or replacement.

Student transcripts cannot be provided by OUV P. Please contact the institution where you studied if you require a transcript.
