Centre for Business and Insolvency Law

NOTTINGHAM LAW SCHOOL
Nottingham Trent University
Nottingham Insolvency and Business Law e-Journal
Volume 3

Special Edition
Festschrift in Honour of Professor Ian Fletcher QC

PROFESSOR DAVID BURDETT
Professor of Insolvency Law
Director of the Centre for Business and Insolvency Law
Nottingham Law School

PROFESSOR PAUL J. OMAR
Professor of International and Comparative Insolvency Law
Nottingham Law School

PROFESSOR REBECCA PARRY
Professor of Insolvency Law
Nottingham Law School

PROFESSOR ADRIAN WALTERS
Ralph L. Brill Professor of Law
IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law
Visiting Professor
Nottingham Law School

Editors
Contents

PART I – MARCH 2015

1. Foreword and Encomium
   David Burdette
   1

2. Conflated Arrangements: Comments on the Company Voluntary Arrangements in the Proposed Nigerian Insolvency Act 2014
   Bolanle Adebola
   3

3. Foreign Revenue Laws
   Hamish Anderson
   23

4. Less is More in International Private Law
   Susan Block-Lieb and Terence C. Halliday
   43

5. The Pro-Creditor Approach in South African Insolvency Law and the Possible Impact of the Constitution
   André Boraine, Roger Evans, Melanie Roestoff and Lienne Steyn
   59

6. Bankruptcy, Arbitration Agreements and the Access to Justice
   Judge Eric Dirix
   93

7. Path-Dependent Obstacles to Cross-Border Insolvency: A Social Darwinian Perspective
   Jennifer L. L. Gant
   101

8. Directors’ Duties to Creditors: A Doctrinal Mess
   Anil Hargovan
   135

9. The Waxing and Waning of the Tides: From the Isle of Man to Bermuda
   Mr Justice Paul Heath
   155

10. “Relashio!”: Liberating the Common Law on Judicial Cooperation from its State of Arrested Development - The British Atlantic and Caribbean World
    Chief Justice Ian Kawaley
    167
11. Challenging Payments made by Insolvent or Near Insolvent Companies
   Andrew Keay 215

12. Reform, Counter Reform and Transatlantic Rapprochement in the Law of Personal
    Bankruptcy
    Jason Kilborn 229

13. The Uneasy Case for Schemes of Arrangement under English Law in Relation to non-UK Companies in Financial Distress: Pushing the Envelope?
    Lucas Kortmann and Michael Veder 239

    Australian Perspective
    Rosalind Mason 263

15. Plus Ça Change, Plus C’est La Même Chose? The Reform of Bankruptcy Law in Scotland
    Donna McKenzie Skene 285

16. Europeanisation of the Member States’ Insolvency Laws
    Christoph G. Paulus 301

17. The Limits of Limited Liability
    Harry Rajak 311

18. The Kekhman Quintessence: What is English Personal Insolvency Law For?
    John Tribe 331

19. Insolvency Proceedings for Members of Company Groups: European Legislation is Nearing Completion
    Judge Heinz Vallender 369

    Law
    Adrian Walters 375

21. Cross-Border Cooperation in the United States: A Retreat or Merely a Pause?
    G. Ray Warner 393
22. The Remington Rand Affair
   Bob Wessels

PART II – DECEMBER 2015

23. Is Corporate Rescue a Realistic Ideal? Business as Usual in Australia and the United Kingdom
    Colin Anderson and David Morrison

24. 4:3:2:1... Fair Distribution of Appointments or Countdown to Catastrophe? South Africa’s Ministerial Policy for the Appointment of Liquidators under the Spotlight
    David Burdette and Juanitta Calitz

25. The Role of Directors in Corporate Rescue in France and the United Kingdom: An Overview
    Alexandra Kastrinou

26. Foreign Law and Public Policy in the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency: A Transatlantic Perspective
    Gerard McCormack

27. The EU Special Resolution Mechanism: A Necessary Fix?
    Paula Moffatt

28. Applications for Sale of the Family Home after One Year of Bankruptcy: A Creditor’s Prerogative?
    Mark Pawlowski and James Brown

29. Recalling The Public Interest in Personal Insolvency Law: A Note on Professor Fletcher’s Foresight
    Joseph Spooner

30. Ian Fletcher and The Internationalist Principle
    Jay Westbrook

31. Diffusion of the Principle in Cambridge Gas: A Sad and Singular Deflation
    Paul Omar